

Microplate Color Coding System

Apply nearly any color to wells or strip tabs with ink-free permanent process giving each test kit a unique color scheme for quick identification.

- Up to 800 microplates per hour
- Stack-fed conveyor design requires only one operator
- Robust high quality construction

Oyster Bay Pump Works specializes in the design and manufacture of integrated automation systems. Since 1979, we have been designing solutions and supplying cost-effective and reliable equipment to the diagnostics industry. Ask us about applying this experience to your needs.